Summer Internship Programme

The IWC has launched its formal Summer Internship Programme with the posting of an opportunity at the Secretariat for current students or recent graduates.

The successful candidate will be working on IWC document and knowledge retention, managing and backdating the digital archives of IWC historical documents. They will be working directly with our External Affairs and Statistics departments with other duties as required.

We actively encourage international applications and look forward to hosting the selected candidate during the summer of 2023.

Please note that as this is a paid position, candidates will have to cover their travel, accommodation and visa costs.
