CIRCULAR COMMUNICATION TO COMMISSIONERS
AND CONTRACTING GOVERNMENTS
IWC.CCG.118

Financial Contributions : Rights to Receive Documents and to Vote

Further to the Circular Communication dated 2 July 2000 (RG/JAC/AD013; IWC.CCG.117) the Secretary is pleased to confirm that the Government of Brazil paid its arrears of contributions and interest during the course of the 52nd Annual (3-6 July, Adelaide, Australia). Subsequently, the Government of Argentina has also made full payment of its arrears. The penalties of suspension of their rights to receive documents and to vote which had been applied in accordance with the Rules of Procedure and Financial Regulations have therefore been lifted.

The Contracting Governments who now remain subject to these penalties are:

Costa Rica
Peru
Senegal

Kenya
Venezuela

Dr. R. Gambell
