Intersessional Report of the IWC: 2016-18

I am pleased to announce the availability of the IWC Intersessional Report for 2016-18. As you may recall, this new style of IWC report was launched in 2016, as a way to provide both a summary of the work undertaken between Commission meetings, and a general prospectus for anyone wishing to learn about the organisation.

In a report of this size, it is not possible to include everything that the IWC has been involved in over the past two years, but I hope you will find it a useful summary.

Consistent with our commitment to reduce paper, printed copies will not be available, although the report is designed to be both easy to read on screen and to print, should anyone wish to do so. Please note it is best downloaded and viewed or printed as a PDF rather than through a web browser which may distort some of the formatting.
